Presented in ASL ~ by Shannon Wright, NIC, COMS, CVRT

Have you been working with the DeafBlind community for a while and wonder if you're doing it "right?" Would you like to work with the DeafBlind community but don't know where to start? Then this workshop is for you!

This workshop is intended to be an introduction to several topics that are unique to interpreting for and working with the DeafBlind population. We will cover a variety of topics including: Eye Diseases and Causes of DeafBlindness, Basic Communication Techniques, Ergonomics and Seating, Modified Sign Space and Sign Choices, Protactile Principles, Guiding and Working with Support Service Providers. There will be hands-up interpreting practice AND hands-on practice guiding. Vision simulators will be used for several of the exercises. Participants should anticipate feeling more prepared to accept assignments with DeafBlind consumers following this workshop.

Three hours of online work must be completed BEFORE the start of this workshop.
You will earn an additional .3 CEUs - FREE!
